New Cars are Scarce, and
So are Used Ones

You can find junk anytime, but not good used cars like we have for sale. About 60 per cent of our used car business this year was repeating business. We have regular used car customers. People that we have sold five and six cars and in some cases even more.

We have no used cars on the floor that we have had over 15 days. Our large business is the reason for us having used cars for sale while they are so scarce.

One Overland roadster model 16, repainted, good tires, seat covers; some value at $550.

One Maxwell, $350. One Auburn roadster, $450.

Forty used cars; roadsters, touring cars; anything you want. Liberty Bonds, small cars taken in trade. Salesmen on floor from 8 a. m. until 6 p. m.

LEGAL NOTICE

The State of Ohio,
Medina County, S. S. in the Probate Court
Frank Derhammer, as Administrator of the Estate of Cora A. Derhammer, deceased, Plaintiff.

Frank Derhammer, et al.,
Defendants.

Aldula Bowers, whose place of residence is unknown; will take notice that Frank Derhammer, as Administrator of the Estate of Cora A. Derhammer, deceased, on the 8th day of July, 1918, filed his petition in the Probate Court of Medina County, Ohio, alleging that the personal estate of the said deceased is insufficient to pay her debts and the charges of administering her estate; that she died seized in fee simple of the whole of Out Lot No. 2 in the Village of Seville, Medina County, Ohio, containing 5 and 49-100 acres of land; that Frank Derhammer, the surviving husband, is entitled to dower in said premises; that the Seville State Bank claims to hold a mortgage thereon; and The Ohio Fuel Supply Company claims to hold a lease or some interest therein. The prayer of the petition is for the assignment of dower, that defendants be required to answer or be forever barred of any right, title or interest in said premises, and that plaintiff be given an order to sell said premises in order to pay the debts and charges of administering said estate.

The defendant, Aldula Bowers, is hereby notified that she is a defendant to said petition, and that she is required to answer on or before the 5th day of October, 1918.

F. W. WOODS,
Attorney for Plaintiff.

and the band played several selections. Arthur Barber got an extension of time until the fall crops are gathered.

The Sunday edition of the Plain Dealer said the little Nichols girl died, which was not true, as on Saturday night she was doing fine and the doctor said if all went well she could come home within two weeks.

Quite a number from here attended the yearly meeting at Royalton Sunday. Rev. Pounds of Hiram gave the main addresses. The one next year will be held here at Brunswick. While at this meeting Sunday the tables for dinner were set in the yard of Mrs. Miner, across from the church and after dinner, her shepherd dog, aged about eleven years, mingled in the crowd and finally bit little John Alden, son of May Gibbs Alden, twice on the leg and near the waist line. Dr. Damon, who was present, attended the boy. The next morning the dog bit at the boy of the home, so the dog was shot, and Alvin Gibbs went over Monday and got the head and sent it to Columbus for examination, as the dog had not acted right for several days.
